OLDFIELD TELLS REAL PROMOTER.

RICHARD AND GLEASON BUT "DUMMIES" IN THE JEFFRIES-JOHNSON BOUT — RICHARD STARTS FOR FLORIDA SOON.

(Special to the Daily News)
DAYTONA, Feb. 22—Barney Oldfield, the noted automobilist, was in training here for his world's record drive of the new 200-horsepower Buick, on the Daytona Beach, when he was told that the Jeffries-Johnson bout would surely take place in San Francisco and that neither Tex Rickard nor Jack Gleason would be the promoters.
Oldfield is a very warm personal friend of Jimmy Coffroth's and it is known that he will be the man at the helm when the Buick clears away. Coffroth has been told the one promoter on the coast who is always willing to take a big chance with a lot of money on the line, and Oldfield has known for a long time that Gleason and Rickard were "dummies" in the $101,000 bid for the fight. Coffroth's reason for staying in the background and having the Buick City bidding against them, was simply to prevent a bunch of California politicians from attempting to be declared in the prize.
Oldfield is getting himself in rare physical condition for the Daytona Beach race and predicts that he will put up the races and records of his life next month. The automobile racing king is working out with a number of major league base ball clubs who have been here for two weeks.
Barney will leave here the fourth of March for Florida.

DEWEY READS FAREWELL ADDRESS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22—All official business was suspended in the capital today in observance of the legal holiday. The Sons of the Revolution, the Society of the Cincinnati and other organizations held their usual exercises, and numerous receptions were given in honor of the day. During the forenoon the senate galleries were filled with a large throng assembled to hear the reading of Washington's farewell address by Senator Dewey.

TAYLOR TAKES ANOTHER TRIP TO SPEAK.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22—President Taft left the capital this morning over the Pennsylvania railroad, for New York, where he is to speak at the annual banquet of the Society of the Cincinnati for the State of New Jersey. He will spend the greater part of tomorrow at the metropolis and will doubtless have another conference with the New York Republican leaders. Tomorrow night the president will speak at a banquet of the board of trade in Newark, and will then return to Washington.

KICK REGISTERED BY PRACTICAL ROAD ENGINEER.

SAYS VOLUSIA AVENUE SHOULD BE CROWNED AND COVERED WITH SHELL—TIME TO STOP EXPERIMENTS.

Why should Daytona's streets be in such a muddy condition after every little shower?
Has anyone far to go to see a demonstration of what the oyster shell in the old shell mound does and has been doing for years? For the life of me I cannot understand why your city officials will keep trying experiment after experiment, year after year when they have such a demonstration at your very door.
Take Volusia avenue today, the avenue that should be the pride of your beautiful city. The one street everyone who comes and goes, must go over, and first impressions are retained by those who come to your city. One would think they were entering some boom town that had not outgrown its corduroy, or, were taking a slide on a roller coaster.
This street should be the best street in the city, at least forty or fifty feet in width, well crowned and shelled from the Railway to Ridgewood, and at least thirty feet from Ridgewood to Beach street.
Look at your other improvements—sidewalks. Can you blame people for riding on them when streets are in such condition? Such work is very well and should be encouraged.
But, Mr. Street Committee, make a noise like improvements and put this one street in A No. 1 condition, right now. The cost will be but a trifle and show the people that you are up to the times. Nature has done a great deal for you, but you must build your streets—so level up the foundation to grade, crown it up as it should be and widen it out to meet the travel it is obliged to carry, and have one street that you can look upon with pride. DO IT NOW.
Practical Road Engineer.

COLORED MINSTRELS SAID TO HAVE FINE WARDROBE.

Appearance is everything! You can not help but be impressed with the appearance of Richards & Pringle's Minstrels when they visit your city.
No old hand-me-down, faded, worn-out wardrobe. Instead, you will see the best dressed minstrel parade you have ever seen on your streets. Uniforms of the costliest material, built by the best tailors in the land. And the deportment of these talented colored boys is always a subject of comment in every city they visit; and that includes all the principal ones from Maine to California.
The performance given by this company, unlike many given by their white competitors, is strictly clean and refined. Not a suggestive word, song, joke or action finds a place in their program.
This motto of cleanliness is doubtless the keynote of their success, for they are packing the theatres throughout the country.
There will be a big free street parade at noon, headed by the best minstrel band in America, and a concert in front of the theatre at 7:30 in the evening.
Make a note of the date at the Daytona opera house next Wednesday evening.

SOUVENIR POST CARD FROM OTHER SIDE OF WORLD.

Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Houghton received, a few days ago, a souvenir post card from Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Burns, mailed at Bangkok, Siam, one of the principal cities of that eastern kingdom. The card, which contained a view of a large pagoda, carried wishes for a "happy new year" and was mailed, though merely as a coincidence, on the Doctor's birthday, Jan. 12. It was somewhat more than a month in transit.
Mr. and Mrs. Burns are well known here, having owned property and erected several cottages on Cedar street a few years ago.

The annual celebration of Minnesota Day will be held Thursday at the Twill-do Cottage on the ocean beach, a few doors north of the automobile club house, and will consist, as usual, of a picnic lunch, followed by a short program.
A hundred or more parties have been seen, but a general invitation is extended to all Minnesotians and they will be welcome without special or personal invitation.
All attending should provide themselves with a basket lunch and are requested to be at the cottage by 10:00 a. m.
Any further information may be had by calling on Asa Paine, who is in charge of the arrangements, at his residence, No. 316 South Ridgewood avenue.

MASONIC MEMORIAL IN MEMORY OF WASHINGTON.

NATIONAL GATHERING OF GRAND MASTERS LAUNCH THE MOVEMENT IN WASHINGTON TODAY.

Alexandria, Feb. 22—A movement for the erection of a national Masonic memorial to George Washington was officially launched today at a national gathering of eminent Masons held under the auspices of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of this city. Grand master Masons from many sections of the country attended the meeting this morning at which a national organization was formed to carry out the project. Later in the day the visitors journeyed by special train to Mount Vernon to place a wreath on the tomb of Washington.
George Washington was initiated as a member of Masonic Lodge No. 4, Frederickburg on November 4, 1752. No unusual display was made at his initiation, and the only relics of the occasion handed down by the lodge are the records, the Bible on which he took the oath, the certificate or check for two pounds and three shillings, fee for entrance, and the punch bowl which figured so conspicuously in the repast following the degree work.

SURRICK LINCOLN AT THE OPERA HOUSE FRIDAY NIGHT.

ASSISTED BY MRS. LINCOLN, IN A REPERTOIRE OF PICTORIAL TRAVELOGUES.

Surrick Lincoln, traveler and raconteur, will give an entertainment at the Daytona Opera House Friday night that is both intensely interesting and educational and he is ably assisted by Mrs. Lincoln.
The magnificent illustrations, in natural colors, cover a wide range of subjects from both hemispheres and Mr. Lincoln's descriptions of places and scenes are pleasing and instructive. These reproductions of scenery and life are supplemented by superior motion pictures.
As an evidence of the popularity of the Lincoln pictorial travelogues it may be stated that more than 4,000 entertainments have been given throughout the United States.

KILLS HIS PAL THEN HIDES BEHIND WASHINGTON STATUE.

RELEASED PRISONER QUARRELS WITH AN ACCOMPLICE OVER THE DIVISION OF SPOILS OF RECENT LONG ISLAND BURGLARIES

NEW YORK, Feb. 22—John Leonard, 31, a released Federal prisoner from Atlanta three months ago, after serving one year for blowing the safe of a South Carolina post-office and who the police charge as being a high-class yeggman, was killed by his pal, Charles Barnes, 37, this morning in Brooklyn. The police claim Barnes was the leader of a gang of yeggman with headquarters here.
Barnes was captured hiding behind the Washington statue near the Williamsburg Bridge.

The police say the men quarreled all week over the division of loot of recent Long Island burglaries. This morning he called at Leonard's house and summoning Leonard to the door in his night-clothes, shot him four times and then ran. He was caught but a desperate battle preceded his arrest. He is now at the Tombs charged with murder.

RAIN KEEPS STRIKERS OFF STREETS.

ONLY ONE RIOT MARKED THE OPENING OF FOURTH DAY OF PHILADELPHIA CAR STRIKE.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 22—Drenching rain throughout the night kept most of the crowds off the streets today.
Only one riot marked the opening fourth day of the car strike. Germantown and Leigh avenues in the Kensington district are thickly populated with union sympathizers and a mob of 600 of them wrecked a car this forenoon, but later fled before the mounted police.
Arrangements have been made to use the state constables as police in the riot sections fully armed.
John Murphy, president of the Central Labor Union, and Peter Driscoll, president of the local carmen's Union, left this morning to confer with Samuel Gompers and John Mitchell, president and vice president of the American Federation of Labor, at Washington, regarding the advisability of calling out every union man in Philadelphia in retaliation for the arrest of Pratt, the strike organizer for Indiana.
The general feeling favors strikers. Frank Kalb and Walter Stad, boys, were fatally injured this morning in the Kensington riot.

FASHIONABLE ST. PAUL CAFE ROBBED BY STYLISH MEN.

IN DRESS SUITS THEY HOLD UP CASHIER IN THE PRESENCE OF 100 DINERS—$300 SECURED.

ST. PAUL, Feb. 22—The police are without a clue as to the identity of two men in dress suits who early today held up the cashier of a fashionable restaurant and escaped with $300 in the presence of 100 diners.
Stanley Colburn, the cashier of Garing's Cafe, was going over his accounts when the men approached the desk. Colburn thought them diners, ready to pay their check, but looked into the muzzles of two revolvers and was commanded "hands up." The two robbers then seized the cash drawer containing $300 and backed out of the door.
The doorman tried to intervene but was shot at, the bullet crashing through the glass door.
Wild confusion ensued among the after theatre diners, many women becoming hysterical. The men diners pursued but the robbers turned on the sidewalk and fired several shots into the crowd and through the windows of the cafe and disappeared into Rue Park. They had eaten a sumptuous dinner.

DELAND, THE ATHENS OF FLORIDA

DELAND, the county seat of Volusia County, is situated 12 miles northwest of Daytona and is reached from the latter city by an excellent hard-surfaced road recently constructed.

At Deland is located the John H. Rogers University, one of the leading educational institutions of the South. Because of the interest in natural development and the building of the Rogers University, there are 10 professors and instructors. There are 100,000 in buildings and equipment, nearly finished, representing a Carnegie Library also representing a university in building. The Rogers University is one of the most beautiful college buildings in the South.

The city has a population of about 1,500, with a thirty-cent city school system. Deland proper is a fine section of the State of Florida, and is one of the most beautiful spots in the State in regard to its location. ## PROGRESSIVE NEW SMYRNA

NEW SMYRNA is situated fifteen miles south of Daytona and is an ideal spot reached from Daytona by a hard surface road winding through one of the most picturesque parts of Florida.

With its ancient ruins dating back to a time when the history of man runneth not, interlaced with wires of the modern telegraph and telephone, its miles of shell streets as hard and smooth as a floor and over-arched by hoary forest giants that grew in stately grandeur during the lapse of bygone centuries, New Smyrna is truly a place of romance and rest.

All nature here is very inviting to the tourist and pleasure-seeker. Here too is to be found the best fishing and hunting in the State of Florida.

The people are thrifty, the business men enterprising, and all unite in extending the welcome hand of hospitality to strangers. There are five church edifices for white people and an equal number for the colored population; the town has an excellent high school, a splendid public library, and up-to-date business houses.

There are any number of pretty homes for the permanent population, which numbers close to 2,000, and some very fine winter residences. There are good hotels and boarding houses where you can find accommodations to meet your requirements.

Adjoining New Smyrna is as fine a section of vegetable land as can be found anywhere. This land has been divided into small farms which can be bought at reasonable prices. Some of the finest celery grown in the State is raised on this land. All other vegetables grow in abundance, and here, too, is the home of the famous Indian River oranges.

New Smyrna has no bonded indebtedness and the tax levy is low.

A point that no tourist should fail to visit is the ruins of the Old Spanish Mission which stand somber and alone about one and a quarter miles southwest of New Smyrna. A good road leads to the place and the trip can be easily made by an automobile. Silent, in the great pine flats by the margin of the forest, is this place of pilgrimage for the pious; this rendezvous for the picnicer. The ruins are extensive, and while there is no authentic history of their origin, it is presumed that the Mission was built by the Franciscans in the days when the once powerful Kingdom of Spain first planted its flag upon what is now American soil. It was built of coquina, the roof being of the same material, cut into thin slabs and covered with cement plaster. Visitors usually come in parties merry and curious but the spell of the place soon falls upon them and they separate to sit alone, silent and meditative, under the arches or beside the ancient well.

CORONADO
Is situated on the peninsula opposite New Smyrna and is connected by a good road and bridge over the deep current of Indian River. Here you can put aside your conventional garb, breathe in large and deep the salty tonic of the sea and enjoy yourself to your heart's content with rod and reel in row or sail boat or in the ocean surf a short half-mile away. The great varieties of fish inhabiting the river and lagoon pass through the channel from the sea beneath the bridge. From verandas, upper balconies and windows you behold the magnificent river, the distant lagoons and islands, the forest-covered peninsula and the vast reaches of the Atlantic Ocean.

HAWKS PARK
A pretty village located along the ridge above the Indian River two and one-half miles south of New Smyrna and connected with fine shell roads. There is the appearance of newness, comfort and seclusion about the place which stamps it as the abode of people who come here to enjoy the blessings of outdoor life away from places where crowds are apt to gather.

ORMOND is five miles north of Daytona, located on the western bank of the Halifax River. The location of the town permits of good drainage and perfect sanitation; the elevation is superb and ideal for winter homes. A wide bridge connects Ormond with Ormond Beach.

Many fine residences are maintained on either side of the river, most of them embellished with sub-tropical flora and shrubbery, besides thrifty orange and other citrus fruit trees.

The town is very cosmopolitan, has an excellent graded school, several churches, a fine public library, up-to-date places of business and comfortable and convenient hotels and boarding houses.

Ormond has many of the Florida attractions—fine fruit, good fishing, excellent automobilism, safe boating, salubrious climate and pleasant walks and drives.

At Ormond Beach is located the large Hotel Ormond, and its lesser sister, Bretton Inn. The former occupies a position overlooking the Halifax River, while the latter has as its outlook the magnificent beach and the broad Atlantic.

The walks in all directions are particularly attractive, and the arbors, shady and inviting spots and romantic nooks are crowded with rustic seats which are mute invitations to enter into the enjoyment thereof.

Besides the broad, smooth ocean beach there are many drives for carriage or automobile—long drives and short drives; drives through groves of golden oranges; drives through dense tropical forests to Spanish ruins; drives to the ancient Causeway built by the slaves of planters of long ago, and drives to the plantations of hospitable settlers, whose places are replete with the interest of Southern fruits and flowers.

One of these interesting plantations is Number Nine, located on the peninsula, five miles north of the Hotel Ormond. Here you see a fine orange grove, together with great varieties of other sub-tropical fruits and flowers.

Five miles further on you come to Moundgrove, one of the finest orange groves in this section of Florida. Moundgrove is on the headwaters of the Halifax River and is amid pretty surroundings. The place is reached by a good road (passing Number Nine) and is a drive all tourists may enjoy.

DELAND, the county seat of Volusia County, is situated 23 miles southwest of Daytona and is reached from the latter city by an excellent hard-surface road recently constructed.

At Deland is located the John B. Stetson University, one of the leading educational institutions of the South. Because of the interest in matters educational Deland is known as "The Athens of Florida."

Stetson University has a faculty of 50 professors and instructors. There are over $400,000 in buildings and equipment; nearly $300,000 endowment; a Carnegie Library alone representing an investment in building, endowment and books, of more than $120,000. The library is the United States Government depository for the State of Florida, and contains over 15,000 volumes. Science Hall, one of the newest of 16 buildings, with its furnishings, represents an outlay of $60,000. Elizabeth Hall is one of the most beautiful college buildings in the South.

The city has a population of about 3,500, with a thickly settled country adjacent. Deland proper is five miles east of the St. Johns River, on the high, rolling pine land of the great "Orange Ridge" of Florida.

The predominating products are oranges and grapefruit, the estimated crop from this vicinity being over 300,000 boxes this year. Grapes, peaches, pears, Japan persimmons, plums, pecans, guavas, strawberries and other fruits are grown in plenty.

In the way of public improvements are many miles of fine shell roads, an excellent high school, electric lights, a system of waterworks that is owned and operated by the city, supplying the purest water at little cost.

Nine houses of worship testify that Deland is a church-going community. Baptists, Episcopalians, Methodists (Northern and Southern), Presbyterians, Christians and Catholics, besides colored Baptists and Methodists, are represented.

The graded school offers a ten years' course, and the building which it occupies is newly furnished throughout, and is one of the most commodious and best equipped public schools in the State.

The trip from Daytona to Deland is made by automobile in a little over an hour, and there are many pretty drives in the vicinity of the county site. A good road leads to DeLeon Springs, five miles, a historic spot, where 60,000 gallons of water bubble from the earth every minute. From Deland automobiles go south to Osteen, 18 miles, on shell and marl roads; the St. Johns is crossed by ferry near Osteen and cars can then continue to Sanford and Orlando by hard road. There is a shell road from Deland to Orange City, five miles, and a good road from Deland to Lake Helen, a like distance.

Surrounded by several pretty lakes and guarded by lofty pine trees is Lake Helen, a winter resort of no little importance. Camp Cassadaga, a spiritualistic camp-ground is situated near Lake Helen and at this place several hundred people make winter headquarters. A large lumber mill and the largest brick plant in the South are located at Lake Helen.

ORANGE CITY

The principal attraction around Orange City is the many handsome golden orange groves. The town is supplied with water said to be the purest in the world, another attraction to visitors. It is at Orange City that passengers over the Florida East Coast Ry. transfer to carriages and drive to Deland. The town is surrounded by land peculiarly adapted to the cultivation of citrus fruits.

The list includes Senor Don Enrique Cree, the Mexican ambassador, Secretary of Commerce and Labor Nagel, General Frederick D. Grant and Representative J. Sloat Fassett of New York.

FELL ON SIDEWALK; INJURIES NOT YET KNOWN

Mrs. M. Black, sister of Messrs. Blymyer, fell from the steps of the Anderson candy kitchen to the pavement about noon today, and though the doctors have found no broken bones it is feared she has wrenched a ligament of her leg which may confine her for some time.

J. B. Dunn, who was close at hand, assisted Mrs. Black to Mrs. W. W. Carter's auto, which was standing at the curb, and Mrs. Carter took her to the Blymyer residence on Palmetto avenue.

The ingenuity and resourcefulness of our numerous winter visitors display themselves in some new fad each season. A few seasons ago the marsh grass was gathered, and by a pleat or two, a twist or two and a stitch or two converted into beautiful baskets and other articles of utility. This season they are gathering the small brown acorns, polishing them and stringing them with bright colored beads for necklaces, chains and portieres. It is surprising what a fine polish the acorns will take on, and how well they appear as articles of adornment.

ITCHING ECZEMA WASHED AWAY.

Is it worth 25 cents to stop that awful agonizing itch? Surely you will spend 25 cents on your druggist's recommendation, to cool and heal and soothe that terrible itching eruption? By arrangement with the D. D. D. Laboratories of Chicago, we are able to make a special offer of a 25 cent bottle of their oil of wintergreen compound, known as D. D. D. Prescription. Call, or write or telephone to Hankins' Drug Store.

We absolutely know that the itch is stopped at once by D. D. D. Prescription and the cures all seem to be permanent.

The Mahogany Tree.

There is no such thing as a forest of mahogany. The mahogany tree lives by and for itself alone. It stands solitary of its species surrounded by the smaller trees and dense undergrowth of the tropical forest, rearing its head above its neighbors. Two trees to the acre is a liberal estimate for mahogany "finds." More frequently perhaps only one tree will be found over a larger stretch of territory. True mahogany is the only species of the Swietenia mahogani, the name Swietenia having been given to it in honor of the celebrated Baron von Swieten, physician to Maria Theresa. It is distinctly a native of tropical America and frequently towers to a height of 100 feet, the trunk being often twelve feet in diameter. It is of exceedingly slow growth, and the time of its arriving at maturity is probably not less than 200 years. Occasionally small specimens have been found in southern Florida.

British Julius Caesars.

Julius Caesar, who on one of the closing days of August in 55 B. C. landed on the Kentish coast, has had many British namesakes, including a great cricketer, but the best known is Julius Caesar, master of the rolls under James I., about whom Lord Clarendon in the first volume of his history tells the amusing story, "Remember Caesar." The unpopular Earl of Portland sat up all night in a barricaded house with his friends and retainers armed to the teeth because he found in his pocket a slip of paper bidding him "Remember Caesar," which really had reference not to the assassination of the Roman statesman, but to some prearranged promise to a son of Sir Julius Caesar. The tomb of Sir Julius Caesar, with a quality epitaph in legal phraseology, is among the many curious monuments of St. Helen's, Bishopsgate.—London Family Herald.

Parent and Prodigal.

In a Hongkong paper a short time ago there appeared a paragraph reciting that a wealthy young Chinese whose mother controlled a large business in Canton had been spending the money of the firm too lavishly, the attraction of motorcars and other vehicles of extravagance being too powerful for him. After various endeavors to control him the mother at length prepared chains and fetters and had him locked up. He, however, escaped, and the irate mother announced her intention to exercise her maternal rights on his return by cutting the tendons of his ankles and thus crippling him. The account proceeded to say that this treatment is often resorted to by irate parents with prodigal sons.—From "China," by Mortimer Menpes and Sir Henry A. Blake.

Turtles of the Amazon.

The fresh water turtle of the Amazon grows to a great size, especially on the upper river, where full grown ones three feet in length, two in width and weighing 200 pounds are often seen. Every house has its little pond or corral to hold a stock of these animals through the season of dearth, the wet months. Those who have Indians in their employ send them out for a month when the waters are low to select a stock; others purchase their supply.

Knew of One.

"Suggestion? H'm! Did you ever hear of a real cure effected by 'suggestion'?" "I personally knew of one. I once suggested to a young fellow that if he didn't want to have a big dog chasing him off the premises he'd better quit coming to my house, and it cured him of the habit."—Chicago Tribune.

THE DAYTONA DAILY NEWS

Published every evening, except Sunday, from December 1 to April 1, by THE GAZETTE-NEWS CO., T. E. FITZGERALD, Editor-Manager, C. S. HARRIS, City Editor, Geo. F. CROUCH, Superintendent.

Entered as second-class matter December 1, 1909, at the post office at Daytona, Florida, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Foreign Geography.

Children of European birth who were old enough to receive some instruction in geography before coming to this country hold opinions in regard to the political divisions of the earth which all the American geographers and the teachers thereof combined cannot uproot. A New York teacher found that out when she tried to impress upon a young Austrian miss that Columbus is the capital of Ohio.

"It is Cincinnati, on the Ohio," retorted the Austrian maiden politely, but firmly.

Maps and printed text were produced to prove her error. The pupil was in nowise convinced.

"It wasn't that way in our geography at home," said she. And the next day, to uphold her contention, she brought the geography on which she based her assertion. That book was not a perfect product of the geography maker's art, for it certainly did state that Cincinnati, on the Ohio river, was the capital of Ohio.

"But that is a mistake," said the teacher. Then day after day, when the girl was called upon to recite, the teacher put the question of discord. "What is the capital of Ohio?" and day after day, at the risk of bad marks, came the positive reply, "Cincinnati, on the Ohio."—New York Press.

Whelks' Eggs.

Natural soap is not heard of very often, but it not only exists, but is highly prized by Jack Tar in the tropics when the purser reports that the ship's supply of soap has given out. Then all hands are sent ashore to gather a supply of "natural soap," which is found on the shore in the shape of whelks' eggs. The whelk is a little shellfish, or marine mollusk, which in Europe is eaten like mussels, cockles, oysters and clams, but in the tropics it is more highly esteemed for the soap it provides in the shape of its eggs. The eggs are found in a light yellowish mass which is composed of some five or six hundred capsules. One fish alone produces millions of these eggs in the course of the year. They are found on the shores of the Atlantic, but are very profuse on the intertropical coral reefs, where sailors take large quantities aboard for use as soap.

Diamond Cut Diamond.

"Patrick H. McCarren," said a Brooklyn lawyer, "knew how to handle men. He met straightforward men with straightforward methods, and tricky men he bested with willer tricks than their own."

"Once he illustrated his policy to me with a story. He was like, he said, the rich Peter Higgins."

"When Peter was young and gay two friends, being hard up, put up a game on him."

"Peter," they said, 'you might pay us that $2 we lent you.'

"When did you lend me $2?" said Peter haughtily.

"Why, night before last, when you were drunk," was the reply.

"Oh, yes," said Peter. "I remember now. But, hang it, I paid you back!"

"Paid us back? When?"

"Last night, when you were drunk. Don't you remember?"

Didn't Lose His Temper.

There was an elderly East Indian colonel whose boast it was that he had a very tranquil disposition that nothing could ruffle. He took up golf, and for a long time his friends failed to notice any disturbance of the colonel's outward calm, but one day, when playing a foursome, he got into a notorious "devil's punchbowl" bunker and spent a terrible fifteen minutes trying first to find the ball and then to play it out. He tried every club in vain, and at last, glaring like a demon, he smashed them, one after another, across a jagged rock. "What are you doing?" cried the party above. "It's all right!" he snorted. "It's—it's better to—break one's clubs than to—lose one's temper!" And the caddy gathered up the pieces.

Crushing a Lawyer.

De Wolfe Hopper was once a witness in a suit for slander, and the opposing counsel in the court room said:

"You are an actor, I believe?"

"Yes," replied Hopper.

"Is not that a low calling?"

"I don't know, but it's so much better than my father's that I am rather proud of it."

"What was your father's calling, may I ask?"

"He was a lawyer," said Hopper.

NEWS OF THE HOTELS

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wells, from Southbridge, Mass., arrived yesterday and are at The Hamilton.

The guests of the Hamilton will be entertained on Tuesday evening with a progressive euchre party. It will be a Washington affair.

Dr. and Mrs. James Newcomb and F. S. Newcomb, of New York city, arrived Monday night and are guests of The Despland for a week or two. F. S. Newcomb is a brother-in-law of B. A. Armstrong.

The Lyman Twin Opera Co., who made a special trip down the East Coast to Daytona, returned to St. Augustine Sunday. The Messrs. Lyman were guests at The Hamilton during their stay in the city.

Arrivals at The Despland: J. E. Roe and wife, Elgin Mefflin and wife, Lansing, Mich.; D. C. Jenkins, Pittsburgh; Thos. Krauss, Jr., Columbus; Jas. A. Barker and wife, Peekskill, N. Y.; C. H. Waterhouse, Hull, Mass.

Recent arrivals at The Hamilton: C. Bateman, Washington; H. G. Reed, Newburn, Pa.; M. L. Parker, and sister, Springfield, Mass.; Mrs. Stickey, H. C. Lyman and wife, H. L. Lyman, Louis Schinkel, Brooklyn; J. F. Paulitch, Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rea, friends of Mr. and Mrs. Hoene, from Pittsburgh, Pa., arrived Monday night and are guests at the Prince George. Mr. and Mrs. Rea were considerably shaken up in a railroad wreck in North Carolina, but fortunately received no serious injury. The train they were on telescoped another from a branch line.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dranger, of St. Paul, Minn., are prominent people registered at the Prince George. Mr. Dranger is a member of the firm of Clement, Dranger & Co., wholesalers and importers of ladies' wear. Mr. and Mrs. Dranger are very enthusiastic over the beauties of Daytona and are looking forward to future visits.

Yesterday's arrivals at The Ridgewood: Jas. A. Gordan, Miss Gordan, and Mrs. Frederick B. Hyde, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. DeWitt S. Smith, Miss M. C. Grimes, Lee, Mass.; Miss K. D. Duncan, Newark; Mrs. George C. Smith, Kansas City; F. C. Evans and wife, Miss Gertrude Evans, Solomon Oyster, Ulrichville, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Graham-Ward, Philadelphia; Mrs. H. A. Wilkins, Miss Hecksher, New York.

PORT ORANGE

PORT ORANGE, Feb. 22--M. T. Patillo is spending this week with home folks at Osteen.

Mrs. Harriette Pope, of Haskins, O., has been the guest of Mrs. H. B. Smith for several days. Mrs. Pope and Mrs. Smith left for Osteen Monday where they will be the guests of Mrs. A. T. Patillo until next Saturday.

Recent arrivals at the Port Orange House: Mrs. Francis Barden, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. Wm. K. Harris and daughter and Mrs. Robert Craig, Philadelphia; Paul Shocker, wife and daughter, Providence, R. I.; Dr. A. J. Salmen and son, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Miss Kathryn Jay, St. Mary's, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kendrick, Syracuse, New York; Mr. and Mrs. F. Cushman and Doris, Darien, Conn.; Morton D. Converse, daughter and little grandson, Winchendon, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Haskett, Chicago; and W. S. Harker, New Jersey.

Quite a representative body of citizens met in Ridgewood Hall last Wednesday evening for the purpose of organizing an improvement association. After the selection of Judge L. H. Karna as chairman, and C. F. Reifsnider, as secretary, the meeting settled down to business and a general discussion as to incorporation or co-operation. Quite to the surprise of nearly everyone, strong sentiment in favor of incorporation developed during the progress of the meeting and a motion to adjourn with a call for another meeting for next Wednesday night, for the specific purpose of incorporation was carried by a good majority.

"For Rent," "Furnished Rooms," "For Hire" and "Table Board" placards at the Daily News office. tf

Rather Venomous.

A tenderfoot who visited the Yosemite in the old days thus related his experience: The stage driver found out that he was seriously afraid of snakes and immediately proceeded to make his hair stand on end.

"Venomous reptiles? You bet. I don't know what reptiles is, but them snakes you can just bet your life is venomous. Why, one day I was comin' down here drivin' a wagon when I catches sight of a snake in the brush all ready for a spring. My horses starts, an' I whips 'em up fast to clear the snake, don't you see, afore he could spring. He makes one clear spring, the snake does, an' he misses the horses."

"That was lucky. But you--you?" "Lucky? You bet your life it was lucky. He missed the horses, the snake did, but he stuck his fangs clean through the wagon."

"You don't say?" "I do say, and maybe you don't believe it, but it's a fact. He stuck his fangs clean through that wagon, an' that wagon is swelled up so bad that we had to leave it by the wayside and take the horses home."

Now They Never Speak.

A coolness growing out of the following conversation has sprung up between Jones and Smith:

"I had a splendid time last night," said Jones. "I spent the evening at a little social gathering at the Goodman mansion."

"Are the Goodmans nice people?" queried Smith.

"Well, I should say so. They are very aristocratic. To get into their circle one must have either a great deal of money or a great deal of genius."

"You don't tell me so! And you say you were there?"

"Yes."

"You were invited, were you?"

"Of course."

"And to be invited a man has to have plenty of money or a great deal of genius?"

"Precisely."

"Well, Jones, I am very glad to hear you have become rich all of a sudden. Lend me $5."--London Answers.

Antiquity of the Water Pump.

The water pump of today is but an improvement on a Grecian invention which first came into use during the reign of Ptolemies Philadelphos and Energetes, 283 to 221 B. C. The name, which is very similar in all languages, is derived from the Greek word pempo, to send or throw. The most ancient description we have of a water pump is by Hero of Alexandria. There is no authentic account of the general use of the pump in Germany previous to the beginning of the sixteenth century. At about that time the endless chain and bucket works for raising water from mines began to be replaced by pumps. In the seventeenth century rotating pumps, like the Pappenham engine, with two pistons, and the Prince Rupert, with one, were first used. Pumps with plunger pistons were invented by Morland, an Englishman, in 1674 and the double acting pump by De la Hire, the French academician.

Retribution.

"Stand up, prisoner," orders the stern judge.

The trembling culprit, who has been found guilty by a jury of his delighted peers, stands.

"Prisoner at the bar," solemnly declares the judge, "you have been convicted of building house after house containing one of these confounded little boxes called 'reception rooms,' in which there is neither room to receive nor hooks to make it a wardrobe. The sentence of the court is that for the next ten years you shall be confined in one of these alleged reception rooms of your own construction and design!"

Immediately the lawyers for the defendant begin work upon an appeal on the ground that a cruel and unusual punishment has been decreed.--Life.

A Big Help.

The lecturer raised his voice with emphatic confidence. "I venture to assert," he said, "that there isn't a man in this audience who has ever done anything to prevent the destruction of our forests."

A modest looking man in the back of the hall stood up.

"I--er--I've shot woodpeckers," he said.--Everybody's.

Make Some One Happy.

Charles Kingsley thus counseled a friend: "Make it a rule and pray to God to help you to keep it, never, if possible, to lie down at night without being able to say, 'I have made one human being at least a little wiser, a little happier or a little better this day.' You will find it easier than you think and pleasanter."

Ladylike.

A little girl on a train was chewing gum. Not only that, but she insisted on pulling it out in long strings and letting it fall back into her mouth again.

"Mabel," said her mother, in a horrified whisper, "don't do that. Chew your gum like a little lady."--Everybody's.

Webster Made Neat Retort.

As judge made law is now so much discussed, we may recall one of the neatest answers in history, as far, at least, as our own reading goes.

Judge (interrupting Webster's argument)--That is not law.

Webster--It was law until your honor spoke.--Collier's Weekly.

Intercollegiate.

"Not that I love Smith less, but that I love Bryn Mawr," said the junior as he invited a Philadelphia girl to the prom.--Amherst Four Leaf Clover.

Just a Fit.

In the Ex-Libris Journal an amusing anecdote is given of a man anxious for a coat of arms and fortunate in finding one. A secondhand bookseller bought at a country sale some 300 volumes of handsome but unsalable old sermons, books on theology and the like.

He placed a number of these outside his shop. Soon afterward a well dressed man entered and said, "Have you any more of this kind of books with this shield on them?" pointing to the bookplate attached, which bore the arms and name of a good old country family.

"That box, sir, is full of books from the same house," answered the bookseller.

"What do you ask for them?" inquired the man. "I'm going back to Chicago, and I want to take some books, and these will just fit me, name and all. Just you sort out all that have that shield and name, but don't you send any without that nameplate, for that's my name too. I reckon this old fellow with the daggers and roosters might have been related to me some way."

Picking a Horse.

A British cavalry officer, speaking of horses, said:

"Give me a free hand and I should pick a roan--that is, for good temper and quick learning. Dark grays and blacks are mostly strong and hardy, and so are dark chestnuts. As a general rule, light chestnuts and light bays are nervous and delicate. A rusty black's a sulky pig nine times out of ten. Then, again, there are 'white stockings,' as they call them. You know the old saying, 'One white leg's a bad un, two white legs you may sell to a friend, three white legs you may trust for a time, four white legs you may lay your life on.'"

This does not agree with an old Yankee saying:

One white foot, buy him;
Two white feet, try him;
Three white feet, look well about him;
Four white feet, go on without him.

Now, however, the American idea is similar to that of the sergeant, and they say, "Four white feet you can stake your life on him."—London Spectator.

An Ingenious Device.

When Sir Robert Perks' school days were over he entered the office of a firm of lawyers and worked very hard. It was no uncommon thing to find him reading law at 5 in the morning, and this often after he had been working late on the previous night. As a matter of fact, he made it an inflexible rule never to be in bed of a morning after 5. To enforce this rule he invented an ingenious device. This consisted of a long glass tube filled with water nicely balanced over his head and attached by a string to an alarm. At the desired hour the bell rang and awakened the sleeper. If within a few seconds he did not leap from his bed and avert the calamity the descending weight of the clock destroyed the balance of the tube, and down poured the water on his guilty head!—From "The Life Story of Sir Robert W. Perks, Bart, M. P.," by Dennis Crane.

The Limit.

There is a blacksmith who has a shop downtown and who has a reputation for good work, especially in the making of ice tongs. But he claims to be an expert on any kind of ironwork.

Recently a man dropped in on him while he was working on a pair of ice hooks.

"I see you are an expert on ice hooks," said the caller.

"Oh, yes! I make ice hooks putty good," remarked the mechanic, "unt I also shoe your horses or do other ironwork just so good."

"Well," said the caller, "I've got a stove on which the hinges need repairing. Can you fix them?"

The blacksmith drew himself up to his full height and scornfully asked, "Do you think I am a dod gasted jeweler?"—St. Joseph Gazette.

The Comparison.

Dropping into the Garrick club one afternoon, Charles Brookfield, the dramatist, found a well known actor, who happened to be playing David Garrick at the time, reclining in a chair right under the portrait of the immortal "Davy." Brookfield stopped in front of him and looked first at the portrait and then at the man. "By Jove, old fellow," he exclaimed at last, "you grow more and more like Garrick every day!"

"Do you really think so, Brookfield?" returned the delighted victim.

"Yes," came the crushing retort, "and less and less like him every night."—London Tatler.

Unique American Families.

The Harrison family, like the Adams family of Massachusetts, on its illustrious genealogical tree carries the names of one signer of the Declaration of Independence and two presidents of the United States, and in this record the Adamases and the Harrison stand apart in a class by themselves. These distinctions in one family, it can be noted, will never again be equalled. It remains unique in the history of the country.

An Eye to Safety.

Living Skeleton (president of Frenks' Secret society)—Our organization, ladies and gentlemen, is about perfected. It will be necessary, however, to elect a treasurer. Who shall it be? Chorus of Members—The legless wonder!

Accommodating.

Jinks—Have you got quarters for a dollar, old man? Winks—My vest pocket is rather crowded, but pass it over and I'll try to make room for it.

Jealousy is a secret avowal of one's inferiority.—Massillon.

He Was a Good Mixer.

There used to be a popular minister in Indianapolis who was well known in Louisville. He was pastor of one of the leading churches of the city. He was built on the plan of the late Henry George, whose motto was, "I am for men." This Indianapolis preacher was what is called a "good mixer." One day he stopped in a blacksmith shop to chat with the workmen. During the visit a florid faced man of prosperous appearance came into the shop. He and the minister began chatting, but neither knew the other's line of business. They became good friends in a few minutes. Finally the florid faced man produced his card, which announced that he was in the saloon business on West street.

"Come down to my place any time," he said, "and I'll show you a good time."

"All right," replied the minister, "and, by the way, I'm running a pretty good place myself. Come and see me, and I'll show you a good time."

"I'll sure do that," said the other.

"But, by the way, where is your joint?"

"My joint," was the reply, "is the First Presbyterian church. Just inquire for Myron W. Weed, the pastor, and I'll be at your service."—Louisville Times.

The Military Salute.

All salutes, from taking off the hat to presenting arms, originally implied respect or submission. Of military salutes, raising the right hand to the head is generally believed to have originated from the days of the tournament, when the knights filed past the throne of the queen of beauty and by way of compliment raised their hands to their brows to imply that her beauty was too dazzling for unshaded eyes to gaze upon.

The officer's salute with the sword has a double meaning. The first position, with the hilt opposite the lips, is a repetition of the crusader's action in kissing the cross hilt of his sword in token of faith and fealty, while lowering the point afterward implies either submission or friendship, meaning in either case that it is no longer necessary to stand on guard. Raising the hand to the forehead has also been explained as a sign that the weaponed hand is empty and in an inoffensive position, but this reason does not seem so convincing as the others.

A Toothsome Revenge.

During the reign of Charles II., the age of gallantry, it was the custom among gentlemen when they drank a lady's health in order that they might do her still more honor to destroy at the same time some part of their clothing.

Upon one occasion Sir Charles Sedley was dining in a tavern and had a particularly fine necktie on, whereupon one of his friends to play him a trick drank to the health of a certain lady, at the same time throwing his necktie in the fire. Of course Sir Charles had to do likewise, but he got even, for not long after that, dining with the same company, he drank the health of a fair one, at the same time ordering a dentist whom he had engaged to be present to pull out a refractory tooth which had been troubling him. Every one else was obliged in this manner to mourn a molar.

Great Forests.

Canada owns a forest larger in area than the whole of England, Scotland and Wales all put together. The greatest length of Britain is 608 miles, and its greatest width 325 miles, while a Canadian forest in the Hudson bay and Labrador region is 1,000 by 1,700 miles in extent. Another big forest stretches from Alaska to Washington state. The Amazon basin, South America, comprises about 2,100 by 1,300 miles of forest, while Central Africa has a forest region 3,000 miles from north to south and of unknown width from east to west, and the pine, larch and cedar forests of Siberia are 3,000 by 1,000 miles in extent.

Logic.

"What—a boy of your age doesn't know the parts of speech?" exclaimed the schoolmaster.

"No, sir," replied the pupil.

"Haven't you ever heard of a noun?"

"Oh, yes, sir!"

"Well, what comes next?"

"I don't know, sir."

"A pronoun," said the master. "Now remember that. Then comes the verb. Now what follows that?"

"A proverb, please, sir."—London Scraps.

Doing Very Well.

"How's your son making out in business?" asked the first capitalist.

"Very well, indeed," replied the other; "he's got a quarter of a million."

"Why, you started him with a million, didn't you?"

"Yes, and it's two months now since he started operations in Wall street."

—Catholic Standard and Times.

A Choice of Calves.

The difficulties the early Virginian colonists had with their live stock is curiously illustrated by the fact that in the colony of Massachusetts Bay a red calf was cheaper than a black one, experience having shown that the former was more likely to be attacked by wolves owing, it was thought, to the wolves mistaking it for a deer.

Deceived.

Edith—You say old Mr. Goldley deceived Edith dreadfully about his age? Gladys—Yes, poor girl! After they were married he confessed that he was only sixty instead of seventy-five.

Genuine Faith Cure.

Towne—Do I understand you to say that Spencer's case was really a faith cure? Browne—Yes. You see, the doctor and the druggist both trusted him.

Will leave Gille's Dock for
The Tomoka Every Morning.
H. A. PERKINS, Owner.

Miss Leona Chase, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Osborn, on South Palmetto avenue.

Mrs. Atkinson and daughter, of Illinois, arrived Friday and are pleasantly located at the Miller apartment on South Palmetto avenue.

The post office, the Merchants Bank and the city schools observe today as legal holiday. Otherwise the business wheels went round and round as usual. There are numerous and brilliant entertainments in hotel and private circles planned for the evening. The weather is ideal, and Daytona has been well nigh emptied of her visitors for the nonce, who have taken advantage of the sunshine and opportunity to make some one of the delightful out of door trips for the day.

The Volusia avenue dock presented an animated picture this morning just before the two boats started out. The handsome Cherokee was bound for the Tomoka, and pulled out with about seventy-five passengers. The Dixie is being used as a ferry boat to accommodate the large crowds who go to the beach, and was also well filled with grown-ups and children, bound for a day on the beautiful beach, and at least a dip in the invigorating surf.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Brown gave a dinner party last Thursday evening, on Mr. Brown's birthday anniversary. Nine covers were laid, and an elegant dinner served. Those enjoying the occasion were, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Findlay, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Condit, Miss Woodrich, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Knox. The gentlemen present all had served their country through the civil war, and after the dinner and the toasts, they were in the right mood to talk over "war times," and the hardships and compensations of a soldier's life.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. King returned from their trip to Palm Beach on the Constitution, which arrived about 5:00 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and joined Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Cutten on South Palmetto.

J. H. Donnelly, who returned to New York about two weeks ago, expecting to remain until next fall, rejoined his wife and son at their home on Seegad avenue Saturday night, finding the weather North more than he could stand. Mr. Donnelly says the people of Florida should be the happiest in the world when they compare the climate here with that farther North.

Mrs. Geo. H. Ludwig is expected to return by train today from Palm Beach, where she accompanied a touring party in a large Packard car, leaving here last Friday morning. They had quite an experience on the trip, getting mired about twenty miles north of Fort Pierce, the party, consisting of three ladies, the chauffeur and guide, being obliged to remain over night in the automobile. A dozen men and a mule rescued them from the mud next morning.
